

Key Insights from surveys

What is your current role? (Select all that apply)

49 responses

Which operating system do you primarily use?

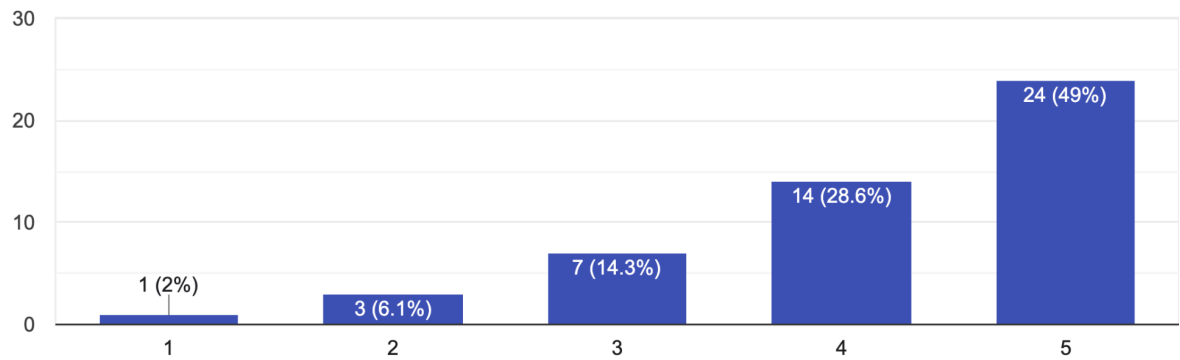

49 responses

Key Insights from surveys

How comfortable are you with using technology/software?

49 responses

When you sit down to work or study, what's the first thing you usually do on your computer?

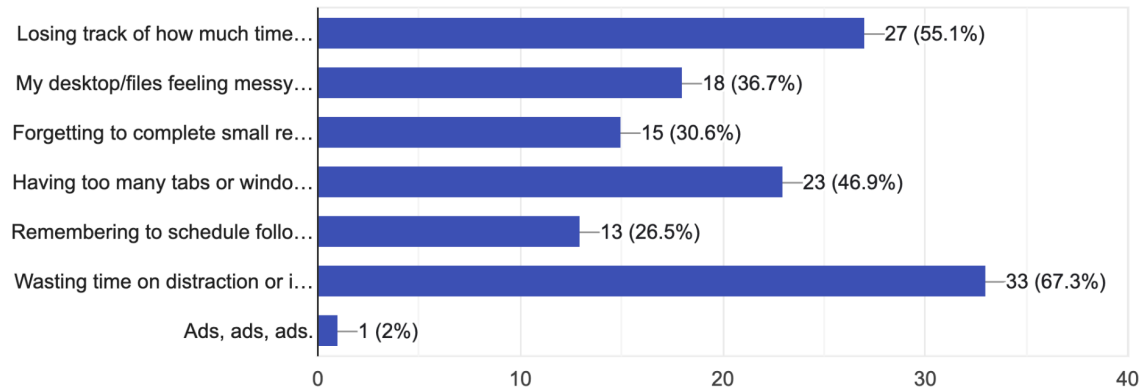

46 responses

Key Insights from surveys

Which of these do you often struggle with? (Select all that apply)

49 responses

How often do you struggle to find files or documents on your computer?

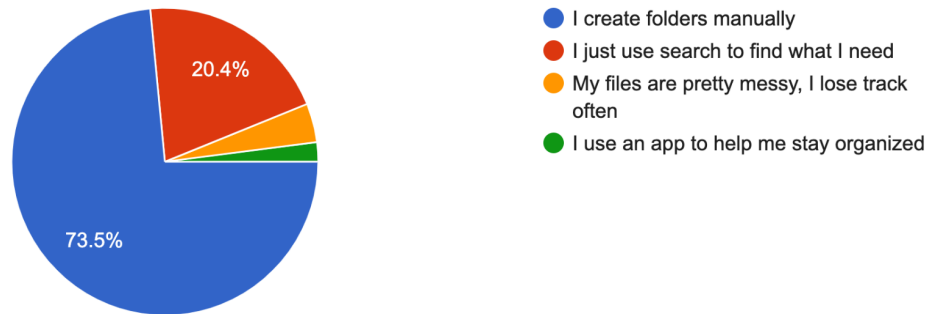

49 responses

Key Insights from surveys

How do you currently organize your files?

49 responses

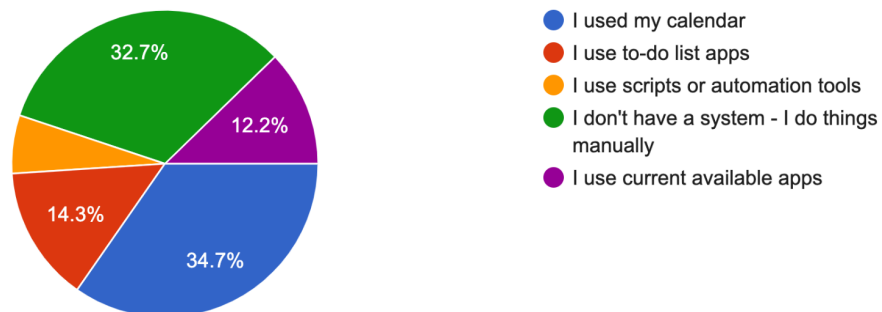

If an app could automatically organize your files into folders by project, client, class, or date - would that save you time

49 responses

How do you currently schedule reminders or automate tasks?

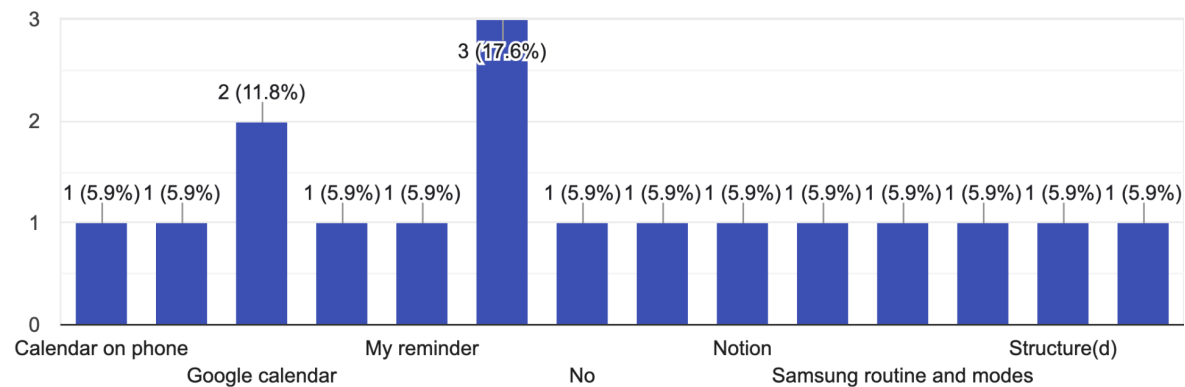

49 responses

Key Insights from surveys

What current app you use to do this? (Skip if answer for the last question wasn't "I use current available apps")

17 responses

How aware are you of how you actually spend your time while working or studying on your computer?

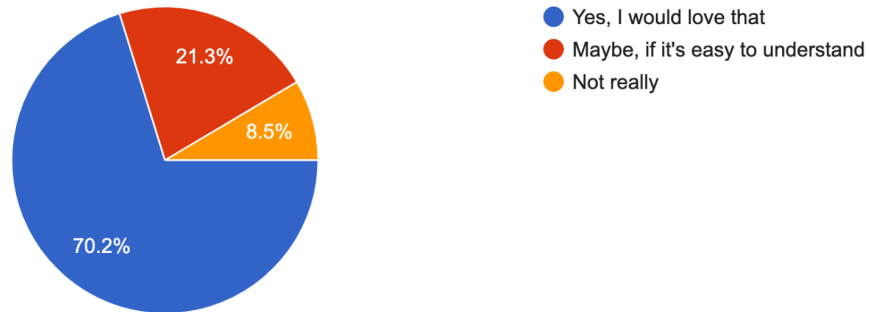

48 responses

Key Insights from surveys

Would seeing a weekly report showing which apps/websites you spent the most time on help you become more productive?

47 responses

How valuable would an “all-in-one personal automation assistant” be for you?

47 responses

What concerns might stop you from using such an app?

46 responses

